

Deloitte doubles its Gilbert presence

Professional services company Deloitte is already a major employer in Gilbert since it opened at the town's central Rivulon business park at the corner of Gilbert Road and Loop 202 in late 2018.

The company plans to double its Gilbert footprint by expanding into a neighboring 100,000-square-foot building at Rivulon in spring 2020 and hiring 900 more employees.

The company plans to recruit locally, spokeswoman Megan Doern wrote. Doern emphasized Deloitte's relationships with local universities and said the company might also find people who want to relocate to Phoenix. Learn more about the jobs at <https://usrecruiting.deloitte.com/deloitte-usdc-west>.

Deloitte receives tax incentives from the state and Gilbert based on number of new jobs created.

Deloitte's buildings at Gilbert's Rivulon campus. (Photo: Courtesy of Nationwide Realty Investors)

Moog self-defense moves to Gilbert

Space and defense company Moog relocated its only Arizona office from Tempe to a custom facility at 2228 W. Guadalupe Road in Gilbert in November. The 35,000-square-foot building has 100 employees and focuses on spacecraft avionics.

The aircraft, construction, defense and energy company has several Gilbert positions open, with information available at www.moog.com/careers.html.

Moog's new building at 2228 West Guadalupe Road in Gilbert. (Photo: Courtesy of Willmeng Construction)